

Capriccio, Theme and Variations

for two Violins and Live Electronics

Nikolaus Knop

Capriccio

* The time indications are not exact but should be interpreted as approximate.

During the performance, the violins should be recorded with a contact microphone. The electronics react to the players' sonic events, thereby allowing them freedom in their temporal shaping. The dashed vertical lines indicate synchronization points.

1'36" Until 2'48" the timeline is stretched by a factor of two for reasons of notation.

musical score for the first system, spanning from 1'36" to 1'48". The score is written for two staves. The top staff contains five measures of music, each with a dynamic marking: f, f, p, pp, and pp. The bottom staff contains three measures of music, each with a dynamic marking: f, pp, and f. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and slurs. The tempo is marked as molto sul p. and molto sul t.. The time signature is 4/4. The key signature is one flat (B-flat).

2'00"

musical score for the second system, spanning from 2'00" to 2'12". The score is written for two staves. The top staff contains five measures of music, each with a dynamic marking: f, p, mf, pp, and f. The bottom staff contains five measures of music, each with a dynamic marking: p, pp, gliss., f, and p. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and slurs. The tempo is marked as molto sul t.. The time signature is 4/4. The key signature is one flat (B-flat).

* The theme is composed of two halves: the first purely acoustic, the second purely electronic. In the first four variations, the two halves are varied alternately, with elements of the respective other half gradually being woven in. In the fifth and final variation, the violins and electronics perform variations of both halves of the theme simultaneously.
